

Chez
Yves Rocher,
nous donnons
la parole aux femmes...

I'm not just a skin type, I believe beauty comes from the choices that I make, inside and out.

I'm not for big promises.

Beauty products SHOULD be effective, fun AND have a clear conscience.

They can be vegan and STILL knock your socks off.

I DO want to reduce that annoying wrinkle today, but with the most natural products possible to protect my skin tomorrow.

Beauty should not be about compromise.

I'm into true beauty - the one that comes from how you act, healthy, friendly, conscious, and generous And yes, I'm still unstoppable with my red lipstick on.

I support people who make beautiful things.

I want to be more than beautiful: I want to be a beautiful person.

Act Beautiful
